

Jeff Beardsley

Environmental Consultant | Community Volunteer | SAMLARC Board Director

Jeff Beardsley has been a proud resident of Rancho Santa Margarita for over 30 years and is deeply committed to preserving the beauty, sustainability, and livability of the community. With a professional background spanning more than three decades in landscape and environmental management, Jeff brings a wealth of experience to his role as Secretary of the Brisa Ladera Maintenance Corporation Board.

As a consultant with Monarch Environmental and founder of Jeff Beardsley Consulting, he advises HOAs on turf, water conservation, and sustainable landscape practices. His career includes leadership roles such as Director of Agronomy at Big Canyon Country Club and project collaboration with agencies like the City of Newport Beach and the Army Corps of Engineers.

Jeff is passionate about community service and currently serves as a member of the Rancho Santa Margarita Chamber of Commerce. He is known for his collaborative leadership style, public speaking experience, and ability to build consensus. Jeff is dedicated to ensuring that RSM remains a vibrant, well-maintained, and forward-thinking community for generations to come.
