

Deborah Christensen

Community Volunteer | Property Manager | SAMLARC Board Secretary

Deborah Christensen has been a dedicated Rancho Santa Margarita homeowner for over 27 years and currently serves as Secretary on the SAMLARC Board of Directors. With a strong background in property management and community service, Deborah brings a wealth of experience, leadership, and heart to her role.

As the owner of Trigo Properties LLC, Deborah manages multiple residential properties across three states. Her professional journey includes roles in bookkeeping, student supervision, and small business ownership—including running a historic bed and breakfast. She has also held leadership positions in nonprofit organizations, including founding treasurer and president of the National Charity League's Canyon Chapter.

Since moving to the community in 2017, Deborah has served on SAMLARC's Architectural Review Committee and currently chairs both the Community Lifestyle and Landscape & Facilities Enhancement Committees. She is passionate about preserving the community's vision while embracing innovation and sustainability.

Her volunteer work spans Saddleback Church, the Utah Sports Commission, and local philanthropic efforts. Deborah is committed to enhancing the quality of life in RSM and ensuring SAMLARC remains a vibrant, inclusive, and well-maintained community.
